DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

I think these issues came about because of Trump constantly talking about it before being elected and all of the Isis attacks. Everyone has such different opinions on this topic that is become nearly impossible to agree on anything. Its put such a bad name to all Muslims. This could be the start to a huge division in all people. Everyone protesting have now upset the people who are all for Trump's ban, which is a start of the division of the people. Other topics that may rise will be Trump's most talked about wall to prevent people from coming into America. Talk has already begun on who will and will not pay for it. But within the first week of being elected he's done everything he said he would, now everyone is waiting to see when the construction of his wall will begin.
